THERE'S NOTHING WRONG WITH WINKING

It's an old American custom. If a fellow wants to wink at a pretty girl, nobody can stop him. Course, he might get a sour look in return, but still he has a right to take that risk if he feels like it.

It's the same way with business. In America a man has the right to invest his time and money in any business if he wants to take the risk involved. That's what we call FREE ENTERPRISE -- another American custom. It's a privilege worth guarding -- it's the basis of our whole American Way of Life!
